POWER OF THE PRESS
THEME DR. KIRKLAND
Editor Southern Christian Advocate Makes Interesting Talk at Lander College.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)
Greenwood, April 1.—The lyceum has been a source of great pleasure to the unusually large number of ticket holders. The last attraction will be given next Friday night, April 7th, when Dr. Byrro W. King, the Pittsburgh orator will appear. Dr. King was in Greenwood a few years ago and made a fine impression.

On Monday morning the students had an interesting and helpful lecture on "Patent Medicines." It was given by Dr. W. T. Lander who called here on his way to New Orleans where he has gone to take a special course in Tulane University.

Dr. W. C. Kirkland, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate spent Wednesday night at the college and made the Thursday talk to the students. His address was scholarly and impressive. The topic was the power of the press.

Dr. Willson is away in Columbia attending a very important educational meeting.
Tuesday afternoon the students had the opportunity of attending service at South Main street Baptist church where Dr. C. C. Coleman, of Charleston is preaching.

Yard is Decreased.
(By Associated Press.)
London, April 1.—A yard of cotton cloth, as measured by the English manufacturers, will hereafter measure 36 inches, instead of 37 inches, as for many generations heretofore. The 37-inch yard is said to have had its origin in the habit of spinners in measuring "from the further side of the thumb," thus adding about an inch "for good measure."

Dock Strike Ended.
Liverpool, April 1.—The Mersey dock strike has ended. The workers returned to work this morning.

NOTICE DEMOCRATIC CLUBS
Pursuant to the law governing primary elections, you will please take notice that you are required to meet and organize on Saturday April 22nd, 1916 at such time and place as indicated by due notice from the President and secretary of each club. At this meeting you will elect a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer and such committees as deemed expedient. You will also elect an executive committee, and one delegate to the county convention for every 25 members or majority fraction thereof. The county convention will meet at the court house in Anderson, S. C., on the 1st day of May, 1916, being the first Monday in May, at 11 o'clock a. m., and the list of delegates certified by the president and secretary of each club shall constitute the temporary roll. The membership of each club for the purposes of ascertaining the number of delegates to the county convention shall be based upon the number of votes polled in the first primary of the preceding election year.
S. D. Pearson,
Chairman Co. Ex. Com.
Leon L. Rice,
Secretary.

WHO'S YOUR PLUMBER?—Give us a trial. No job too small, none too large. And when you are in a hurry we are right there with the goods. Let us "hit the pipe" for you and we'll both be pleased. Glenn Plumb & Co., Phone 400.

WE ARE PAYING $49 per ton for cotton seed, and giving 1-ton cotton seed meal and $4.00 cash for ton of seed. Selling coal at $5.00 and $5.50 per ton. Cabbage plants $1.00 per M. Martin Coal & Wood Company.
